

MERGING TABULAR AND SPATIAL DATA SETS IN A GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEM

by J. C. Eidenshink, D. O. Ohlen, M. E. Wehde
Technicolor Government Services, Inc.
U.S. Geological Survey
EROS Data Center
Sioux Falls, South Dakota 57198
(605) 594-6114

and

Donald Stroud
Bureau of Indian Affairs

ABSTRACT

Tabular attribute information within existing data bases of the Bureau of Indian Affairs was merged with digitized spatial information within a geographic information system. The procedure enables incorporation of attribute data into spatial analysis processes and enables the processing results to be used for updating and refining both spatial and tabular data bases.